

THE LEADER WITHIN

a study in
1 SAMUEL

FRIEND: “A person who you like and enjoy being with;
a person who helps or supports someone or something.”

ENEMY:

“Someone who hates another; someone who attacks or tries to harm another.”

A photograph of two young girls sitting on a couch. The girl on the left is wearing a red long-sleeved shirt with a pink heart on the front that says "LOVE" in white letters. She is sticking her tongue out and looking towards the camera with a playful expression. The girl on the right is also wearing a red long-sleeved shirt and is looking towards the camera with a slight smile. The background is a dark, textured surface, possibly a couch or wall.

FRENEMY: “An enemy pretending to be a friend or someone who really is a friend but also a rival.”

The Book of ISAMUEL

18:1-19:7

An intimate friend is willing to sacrifice

An intimate friend is a loyal defense before others

Intimate friends give each other complete freedom to be themselves

An intimate friend is a constant source of encouragement

THE LEADER WITHIN

a study in 1 SAMUEL

